The third element, construction and operation of infrastructure, is the only element of the proposed project that would result in direct impacts to the environment. Therefore, the evaluation provided in this Initial Study concentrates on this element of the project. The proposed annexation is a legal action that of itself would not have any direct impacts on the environment. However, since annexations generally may have indirect growth inducing effects, which in turn can result in physical impacts on the environment, this issue is considered in this Initial Study. The formation of assessment districts of itself is also a legal action for the purposes of project financing, and would not have any direct environmental impacts. However, the construction and operation of the infrastructure to be financed through these assessment districts is addressed in the initial study.	NOP	08/18/2003

2002111107	Upper Little Lake Habitat Restoration and Enhancement Project Fish & Game #7 --Inyo The project objectives are to increase habitat diversity on the property and provide habitat for a variety of species. The goals of this project are to preserve 90 acres of lacustrine wetlands, enhance habitat for waterfowl on 10 acres of palustrine emergent wetlands, and enhance riparian habitat along a 1.6-mile long creek corridor. Associated benefits will also occur on about 220 acres of wetland-associated uplands. Restoration of water control facilities will allow the six wetlands to be managed for increased food production and cover for waterfowls. This will improve migratory and wintering habitat for waterfowl and other waterbirds. The project will remove nonnative vegetation and enhance a riparian corridor at ULLR. The project will also enhance foraging habitat and cover conditions for upland game species by removing herbaceous vegetation, establishing native vegetation, and periodically irrigating selected areas. During the winter months, the area becomes muddy and inaccessible for park staff. This project will provide a cement pad connecting the fueling station to the storage shed for safe, maintainable, year round vehicle access. The area will require minor grading to the level and prepare the site. Approximately 3-4 inches of aggregate road base will be placed north of the cement pad to provide adequate drainage and absorption of water run-off and allow for year round access.	NOE

Approximately 9 wooden shade structures with metal roofing and concrete picnic tables will be installed near motorcross tracks (70cc, 90cc, MX, and ATV) to provide shelter comfort for park users. These ramps have been used for years yet have received very little maintenance. The loading structures have begun to deteriorate, leaving large bolts exposed, decaying wood and unstable vehicle platforms. This project will replace the existing loading ramps with new ramps, made of wood and cement that provide safe, usable structures for park visitors.	NOE

This justification for this fence is based in resource protection. Volunteer trails continue to proliferate in the "Designated Trails Area" adjacent to the "Open Riding Area" Signing and public education have failed to stop these illegal incursions into the Designated Trails Area by OHV enthusiasts.	NOE

2003078476	Fencing at Ranger Station Parks and Recreation, Department of Tracy--San Joaquin The landscaped grass lot adjacent to the east side of the Carnegie SVRA Ranger Station provides a welcoming and inviting environmental for park visitors as they arrive through the main park entrance. Recently, park visitors and staff have begun using the main park area as a short cut to access the main park road. Signs have been installed indicating the area is closed, yet this has not deterred the vehicle traffic. In order to ensure the continued aesthetic quality of the park entrance and prevent further damage to the landscaping, a post rail fence will be installed around the perimeter of the grass area. The fence will be constructed of pillar core, with 4 posts set in concrete every 8 feet. The fence will allow for pedestrian access and will help to delineate the entrance road.	NOE
